

ASIAN ELEPHANT S U P P O R T

Asian Elephant Support has several Palmer Cap Chur Powder Projector rifles, extra-long range, 50 caliber, single shot, with projector cases to donate free of cost to any wildlife veterinary project in need. We do ask that you cover the shipping costs to you.

If interested please submit a formal request to linda@asianelephantsupport.org and include information on your background, any projects you are involved in, the number of projector rifles requested, and how the equipment will be used. The request should include a governmental letter of support for importing this equipment into your country. Thank you.
